THE THE PERSON HOW BORN THE RESIDENCE OF STREET STREET, STREET

OFFICE IN HOFFMAN'S HALL.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY

JACKSON C. H., OHIO. THURSDAY, NOV. 3, 1853.

The paper will be sent according to orde er year, in advance, for 81,00 If not paid within four weeks, Trese terms will be rigidly adhered to. the time subscribed for, all arrearages must be 1; how do you like him ?"

paid, and positive directions given to that effect until forbid, and charged accordingly.

TP ADVERTISEMENTS INTENDED FOR INSERTION IN THE STANDARD, SHOULD BE HANDED IN PREVIOUS

Select Doetry.

GIRLHOOD.

A sweetness in the morning air. A witching laughter in the woods, A group of maidens everywhere, With glowing cheeks and flowing hair, And not a sorrow or a care Within their dainty hoods!

An agile fleetness in their limbs, A tint of morning on their brov s, Their postures full of girlish whims; No dappted fawn so nimbly skims Along the silver lakelet brims, Beneath the dripling boughs!

They are a ruthless, romping rout, Marauders of each nook and glen ; They disappear with song and shout, They beat the forest all about, And ferret timid flowers out, Then come in glea again.

Such knots of flowers and knots of girls, With beauty in their busy eyes! One plans a cluster with her curls, Another in her finger twirls A nosegay rich with liquid pearls, A tell-tale in disguise.

Oh! girlhood is a guerdon fair, That still is left a recreant race ; There's witchery in its wayward air, Sprinkling the sunshine everywhere ; Alas I that later years impair Ita simple guileless grace!

Select Cales.

From the Aurora Standard STRAY LEAVES OF THE DAIRY OF A JOURNEYMAN PRINTER

THE JOURNEYMAN'S SECRET.

"You can take this case," said the foreman; "here is a stick-here is some copy;

nough in all conscience." The "partner" merely looked up and faintly smiled in acknowledgment of the boarders?' asked the first speaker; 'I'll work without being distributed.' foreman's compliment and kept on with see if they don't want the rules and regu are to study the physiognomy of my he said not a word; I fancied however for my part it will be much pleasanter to and no lady hand shall have free adneighbor. He was a young man of about that he picked up the type faster than commence the week with the consciousthree or four-and twenty, with handsome usual. countenance. His face was paic, and the raven darkness of his hair, eyebrows and bearance is it cannot hold out so in the countenance. Things could not go on this way much a more sensible way, than with a foggy less accompanied by a gentleman — N. hend, aching limbs, and empty pockets, Y. Picagune. eyes, made me immediately come to the everything. I saw that a storm was gathphysiognomy, that he was a hard student man when it burst forth. during his leisure hours, or that, depriving himself of the recreation of books. or other sources of enjoyment, he spent their bills in their hands, waiting to be all of his working hours at the case. The latter supposition time proved correct. As day after day passed by. I became more acquainted with him, and I found him to be a singular character. Beneath his stand, he had constructed a kind of closet, which contained a spirit lamp, a ed round the group. As the foreman paid mattress with bedding, a few cooking Quaker the amount due him, he gave since. His 'lines have been drawn in ntensils, and a small stock of the plainest him a new quarter dollar to make out the kind of food. When the hours of meals ting some food over it to cook, would work eye, and he said, in a tone to be heard by Kentucky. until the hands had left the office, when all; he would sit down to his frugal repast.—

He worked incessaptly during work hours.

If the eagle on that quarter had life and I were a State prison convict, I would hardly leaving the office unless to pur. not swap places with it; for my confinehardly leaving the oince unless to pur. not swap places with a lot my common, use chase food or upon some errand of that ment would be far more preferable to be. miles beyond French Camp, a cror of them that there may be more of such found him at the case working away as with all his might, as if some great issue depended on the improvement of every with a stunning blow brought 'Zeke' to minute, I suppose he slept upon the got. This was the hair that broke the cambined with a stunning blow brought 'Zeke' to the bushels. The yield was about twenty. Because they did aid in carrying out the divine injunction, "be courteous," the bushels to the acre. This is the heaviest grain we ever remember to have heaviest grai minute. I suppose he slept upon the cot which he kept in his closet; but as he was always at work when I left at night and a standing one of the figure of t ployed at the case, and as he would not more to offer, come on with them." covering that there was some mystery connected with him, and his intense application to labor was not prompted mere. It would be cowardly for you all to attack by a desire to make money, for if there is anything in observable of the past generation, he was too given to body of lettered men, gradually become ormed, knowing Arabic, and teciting opportunity of taking down his companion. It would be cowardly for you all to attack this man; I will not see it done. And it is anything in observable of the five wers formerly there do not not be a protanation, a length bell was roug as the train neared a body of lettered men, gradually became ormed, knowing Arabic, and teciting opportunity of taking down his companion as a friend writing from Sacramento, and teciting opportunity of taking down his companion as a friend writing from Sacramento, and teciting opportunity of taking down his companion as the past generation, he was too given to ormed, knowing Arabic, and teciting opportunity of taking down his companion. It would be cowardly for you all to attack this man; I will not see it done. And it is man; I will not see it done. And it is man; I will not see it done. And it is man; I will not see it done of his parishioners, Mr.

months, and he has hardly spoken to any one. Again who makes such bills as he does, and hoards up his money like a mi ser, I have very little friendship for. We would a tany of us care so much if he would be a little sociable and spend a dollar or even a direct converse and spend and students.

Yale College has existed one hundred out of a pond by the event of a pond by the spend and students.

Yale College has existed one hundred out of a pond by the spend of the service, just as usual, and disturbing out of a pond by the spend of the service out of a pond by the spend of the service out of a pond by the spend of the service out of a pond by the event of the service out of a pond by the event of the service out of a pond by the spend of the service out of a pond by the spend every five cent piece he hangs on to as if he was straid the eagle vould and his corresponded with that physician of Paris. I have the worthy clergy ann.—

That body, he first saw this horses. Poor tellow, he ded, every Bostonian would have four-teen hundred and forty dollars.

Thus went on the whole Empire of about the whole Em wings and fly away with it, doing him out of a five cent piece. But he can effect a cure. This, gentlemen, is gested the practical sermon.

scrape acquaintance with him. You had emotion—better not take up on his side if you do My noble fellow, we have wronged you never attempt to direct you again."

was resolved to see him righted, should your way. he get into difficulty. I soon saw that he is give you freely, sir-I forgive you was very unpopular, and that 1, as I lelt all, said 'Quaker.' rather disposed to make allowances for And how much have you to raise yet. were the jokes cracked at our expense. sum ?' whenever the "Quaker corner," (as the About one hundred and fifty dollars. place occupied by us had been dubbed) If I have my health and continue to make was mentioned, an universal titter ran good bills. I shall be ready to start for Eu-round the office. These things irritated me some, but as forbear and let my partner be the first to ges, every cent of which you are welcome customer, who went by the name of suit?' neetings?"

a camp meeting over there in Quaker's sted an equal amount until they had made corner every night. That fellow there, a pile of uank bills, camps out upon the floor every nap he takes."

"Well," said another, "I've heard of him the money.
"No. gentlemen," enswered 'Quaker," and if you like a quiet and steady part boarding at the market house and sleep per, you will find this gentleman still e ing on the bridge, but I never saw an il- I thank you for your liberality, but I canlustration of it before."

·Wonder if they wouldn't take his work; while the foreman turned away lations of the house printed; if they do, growing warm, we owe it to you, and you at the case.

conclusion, after carefully studying his wring, and prepared to act my part as a

It was on Saturday afternoon; the hands were ranged round the stone, with paid off. 'Quaker' happened to be at one end of the 'stone,' and immediately op posite him stood 'Zeke.' As usual Qua ker' was the observed of all observers and sly whispers, which were answered r stored to sight, and that they were on by a titter and a nudge of the elbow, pass their way home not very garrulous, especially when em- insults long enough, and if you have any

It by a desire to make money, for if there is anything in phrenology, judging from you will attempt it, I have something here the formation of his head, he was the very one whom I would have selected as a spendthrift. Occasionally his cheek resented an insult, which any of you will attempt it, I have something here the formation of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in thought one of his parishioners, Mr. as guides to the believers, who prayed in the decidence of the Yankee or which they do not understand or which they do not understand or which they do not understand. The decidence of the Yankee or decidence or which they do not understand. The decidence or which they do would flush, his eyes light up and a hap would have done. You have all insulted times preach us a real practical dispose overspread his features; then num because he has conducted himself course?' the smile would go away, his eyes would strangely; let him explain his conduct. Oh, very well, if you wish it, I will to reciting the prayer and explaining the invented bells in America yet! ness—almost despair—would seat itself He owes you an explanation—it not to practical sermon."

Why, yes, replied the Yankee; we've upon his countenance. I have been you, he certainly does to me. And now. Sunday morning came; and an unusu-tempted a thousand times to ask how the countenance. Sunday morning came; and an unusu-tempted a thousand times to ask how the certainly does to me. And now. tempted a thousand times to ask him the sir.' said 1, turning to him, 'I demand it ally large audience, attracted by the rethe 'Quaker,' I could see the moisture ones,"

Turkey. Between the Sultan and his pop every 40 onles. But I can't say as that coming to his eyes; and when he had finite ones are as you suppose, it will shad be storned forth and greated the conclusion of the service, the circumstances are as you suppose, it will ished, he stepped forth, and grasped 'Quabe his own fault if they are discovered too ker's hand; while the tears trickled down asked how he liked the "practical ones."

not wish to incur the displeasure of the deeply, and I for one ask your forgiven as whole office. Good night."

Had you but told us what your object was.

I had some charity for the fellow, and we would not have placed an obstacle in Had you but told us what your onject was him was considered as his friend. Many I asked, before you have the requisite rope in about two months. 'You won't have to wait that long,' said was not the principal object at whom Zeke, laving the money he held in his these arrows were simed. I resolved to hand upon the stone. if my week's wa-to, will help you any. 'Come boys.' he "I say, fellows, said a rowdy looking he added, how many of you will follow Zeke," "do Quakers ever have camp. Well there's mine, said Jim. laying an

"Yes." answered another, "they have said a dozen voices, as each hand depo-

There, stranger, take that, and may God prosper you,' said Zeke, tendering not take your money; I am no begger; all in I ask is that I may be allowed to do my known

But you must take it, urged Zeke. We worked on steadily until dinner.

We worked on steadily until dinner.

I glanced at my weighbor to see how he without exchanging a word, or even a hook. In the afternoon I had more less to grow the single indignation. But the first and had more less to grow the single indignation. But the first and had more less to grow the single indignation. But the first and had more less to grow the single indignation. But the first and the first and had more less to grow in a word, or even a single indignation. But the first and had more less to grow in a word, or even a single indignation. But the first and had more less to grow in a word, or even a single indignation. But the first and had more less the single indignation. But the first and had more less the first and had more less that the first and had more less that the first and had more less the first and had more less that the fi Still the stranger hesitated.

'Take-take it for your sister's sake, aid two or three voices. 'I accept it, gentlemen,' said 'Quaker,' us you say, for my sister s sake, and I nope to be able some day to return it, principal and interest,'

'Quaker left for Paris shortly after; in few months we had the sati-faction of heaving that his sister was completely

I have heard from him several times pleasant places,' and he is now a judichange. This did not escape 'Zeke's' cial functionary in a neighboring State-

> HEAVY WHEAT .- The Stockton Journel has been informed that Mr. Chas Munson has raised on his ranch. five hist address me, I would not speak to This challenge was sufficient. Costs preached in a town in the interior of this hood, and any Mussuman can say the speed on English ratiosads to a Yankee him; so while the fun and joke were pay came off and the sleeves were rolled up State. A sound theologician was Parson prayers hinself. But the Koran being in traveler seated at his side in one of the sing round the other cases, we were sising a minute. I saw that my triend would be a profanation. a lated, as that would be a profanation.

Preaching a Practical Sermon. A number of years ago Parson B -

tempted a thousand times to ask him the cause of this, but as he appeared so cold and isolated I retrained from doing so, it is not pleasant proffering sympathy un asked.

"Well, how do you like your neighbor?" asked one of the journeymen of bor?" asked one of the journeymen of the profit and to the quarres.

"Well, how do you like your neighbor?" asked one of the journeymen of the profit and to the quarres.

"Well, and to one of the journeymen of the profit and the sound never reached is the man attendance. The preliminary services were performed, and the purson at nounce at the laws and the civil law form one, the Ule port of the promised novely, were in attendance. The preliminary services were performed, and the purson at nounce at the laws and the civil law form one, the Ule port of the promised novely, were in attendance. The preliminary services were performed, and the purson at nounce at the laws and the civil law form one, the Ule port of the promised novely, were in attendance. The preliminary services were descending the title of Schek-ul Islam at the lit was a maxim of Gen. Jackson's:—

"Take time to deliberate, but when the laws and the civil law form one, the Ule port of the promised novely, were in attendance. The preliminary services were performed, and the purson at nounce at the laws and the civil law form one, the Ule port of the promised novely, were in attendance. The preliminary services were descended in ally large audience, attracted by the rain always keeps ahead of the sound.

"Take time to deliberate, but when the laws and the civil law form one, the Ule port of the promised novely, were in attendance. The preliminary services were descended in ally large audience, attracted by the rain always keeps ahead of the sound.

"Take time to deliberate, but when the laws and the civil law form one, the Ule was a maxim of Gen. Jackson's:—

"Take time to deliberate, but when the laws and the civil law form one, the Ule was a dily laws and the civil law form one, the laws and the civil law form me, as we were descending the stairs one the public gaze, but I suppose I must do ced at the head of the aisle, calling each the provincial chief of Justice. All the --but they wouldn't answer, either, I was evening.

"I can hardly make him out." said I; from my earnings I must not only support the appears to be a strange sort of being was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which. In important was more nowher and I had the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which in important was inclined to indulge in creature companied with him that the council from which is a council from the counc TP To insure a discontinuance at the end of You are better acquainted with him than three small brothers, who reside in a discontinuance at the end of You are better acquainted with him than three small brothers, who reside in a discontinuance at the end of You are better acquainted with him than three small brothers, who reside in a discontinuance at the end of You are better acquainted with him than three small brothers, who reside in a discontinuance at the end of You are better acquainted with him than three small brothers, who reside in a discontinuance at the end of You are better acquainted with him than three small brothers.

LP Advertisements inserted at the usual rates of insertions marked on them, will be continued on them, will be continued to fine them. The question being presented by the family, has been blind from the fine them. The question being presented by the family them. It is to support them well by the found in the whole of coming here is this: One of my sisters who is now a beautiful girl of sixteen, and the fine them. The question being presented by the family them. The question being presented by the fine them. The question being presented by the fine them. The question being presented by the found in the whole of coming here is this: One of my sisters who is now a beautiful girl of sixteen, and the fine them. The question being presented by the found in the whole of coming here is this: One of my sisters who is now a beautiful girl of sixteen, and the fine them. The question being presented by the found in the whole of coming here is this: One of my sisters who is now a beautiful girl of sixteen, and the fine them. The question being presented by the fine them. The question being presented by the found in the whole of them. The question being presented by the fine them. The question being presented by the wings and fly away with it, the ng him out of a five cent piece. But he can't stay here long. We've insulted him a dozen times, and has less spunk than I think be hear effect a cure. This gentlemen, is gested the practical sermon.

"And now, said he, "there is Mr. C.—; who suggested the practical sermon.

"And now, said he, "there is Mr. C.—; who suggested the practical sermon.

"And now, said he, "there is Mr. C.—; he's a merchant; and what does he do? Why, he stays at home on Sunday, so the do? Why, he stays at home on Sunday, so the do this history? He may have an all-about his history? He ma late, for we have tried often enough to his face, he said, in a voice quivering with scrape acquaintance with him. You had emotion—instance with him. You had emotion—instance down asked now he liked the "practical ones." ing that the Parre yielded too much to the just what you please after this. I'll counsels of allies promising him aid which HULES FOR LADY PRINTERS. I. Must be at the office from 7. A.

M., to 6 P. M. 2. No reading of motto papers and love stories; nor enting confectioneries during working hours. 3. No hand shall be allowed to have her beau in the office to see her set type at any time 4 No matter how gifted a hand may be at making pies at home, if she makes PI in the office she shall be compelled to assort it.

5. No hand shall sit in the sanctum longer than to procure copy, unless requested by the editor.

6 No attempting to kiss the editor for the sake of clean copy. He will use his prerogative to kiss or scold all hands as occasion may require.

7. Ladies who bring their dinner shall not make a dinner saloon of the Sanctum, nor use proof paper for a ta-

8. Any lady hand about to emigrate to the State of Mat imony, shall give at least one month's notice, that her place may be supplied by another.

9. No married woman will be allow ed to work in this office providing it is 10. No lady shall be allowed to laugh at the motion of another while engaged ness of having appropriated my money in cra, or other places of amusement, un-

Because they fall pleasantly on the ear of all to whom they are addressed, and it is therefore one of the ways of promoting human happiness.

Because they leave an impression in your favor, and thus prepare the way for your greater influence over others

Because kind words powerfully contribute to soothe and quiet your own spirit when ruffled by the unkindness of

Because they show the difference between you and the rude, malicious, or revengeful, and are suited to show them their wrong

Recause they are suted to stir up the kind affections of your own heart. There is sweet music in such a voice rightly to effect the soul. Because they are so uncommon, use always at work when I left at night and when I left at night and when I returned in the morning, I could now, cowardly ruffians, if you cannot let now, cowa

THE ULEMAS OF TURKEY.

Mohammed did not institute a priest-they did not give. Now the accord is reestablished between the nation and the Sultan, both being decided to maintain the modifications made in the note of the conference, or to trust their destiny to the

NEWSPAPER COMPOSITION.

to be shut out—results only appear. Aring his herculean t-bor in five years.
gument is to be suggested, rather than
This is an und rtaking which throws an article. Some single nail should be struck fair upowthe nead and then left at once. Introductions are a nuisance. Intences should be short. Every word toin barriers: Chevaller Mans would come minute, during the past sixty years. should leap with life. Condensation should struct a passage through them. The work who has the nerve to do this, with a soul that fires with a great thought, and the manliness to atter it freely, may wield a me runnel the humanic almost compassible man for whom "she d be willing to cook of points at the Bar, and the precision of of the ranged carreputition. In no way can the profess. Law Associate. Some years ago be gravelly beach. M. DeSanley also re-planter to his slave.

The Ulemas do not confine themselves derful, isn't it! I suppose they haven't on, screeching like a trooper it scream being prevented from relying on its own

The French Engineers are busily em preach ing that the Paris yielded too much to the played in perfecting the bold project f justify a breach of trust on the other. excavating a tunnel under the Apstocon-nect the Padmontes reliways with those of France. It is proposed to pass thro shorter than over Mount Cems It is to yet the news runs from pole to pole. be eight miles in length and a mile below the highest point of the pass; the estion-This is a distinct and difficult art. Its ted cost is a million and a half pour ds principles must be somewhat carefully sterling. An excepting machine, somestudied by those who would succeed in it, what similar, we should think, to the The disregard of these principles is the Hoosac borer, has bean contrived by cause of the prosiness which character | Chevaller Maus, the chief engineer for zes so much of our literature. The news the accomplishment of the undert king paper is not a thing to be studied -scarce. The tunnel is to be ventilated by a ub v one to be read. It is to be glanced lying on the ground carried on as the over. The articles, then, must be so work advances and p ovided with tans to written as to attract and hold attention - maintain a proper current of air. The Processes of thought and reasoning are Chival r hopes to succeed in accomplish-be extreme. Subordinate thoughts should o Napolean was for the purpose of carbe thrown away. The object is not to rying war and conquest into the heart of treat a subject in full, but to produce a fully; that of Chevotier Mus will unite young wife to her frugal husband. "Plento the effect should be discarded. He and commercial intercourse, and will aid company, responded Simpkins. power with a pen that no scepter can ri- barrier which separates Piedmont from three meals of vituals every day of her val.

The tendencies in professional life are of the picturesque will loub less still preto deterioration of style. The constant for the encounter the keen air, the rough diducticism of the Pulpit often degene parts, and sublane scenery of a passage rates into diffuseness. The reiteration over the mountain to the more capid transit instinct with life and power, then by week by practice in the columns of a newspar per.

REA new traveler to the Dead Sea, M. DeSanley, gives an entire fresh description of this famuus water. He affirms that, so far from finding it as most persons have represented, it was a "splendid lake, giltering in the sunshine, with its blue waves gently breaking on the sands of the softest beach." He also saw a flock of wild ducks sporting on its waters, and observed beautiful insects on the gravelly beach. M. DeSanley also regravelly beach. M. DeSanley also responsible, with the gravelly beach. M. DeSanley also regravelly beach. M. DeSanley also regravely beach. M. DeSanley gravelly beach. M. DeSanley also remarks, that every tradition compels the traveler to regard the Holy Scriptures as genuine, as nothing connected with them gravely even in name, and the memorial even in the second even in name, and the memorial even in the second even in name, and the memorial even in the second even in the is changed even in name, and the memory of human transactions has alone been at the store, at Kel Green s. at the tavern. and at haf a dozen other places, the Did you attend church to day?' said a shaking his finger near the witness's face exclaimed exutingly. "Now" Mr. Wit-cently says "he has no idea how it ocwhat two mighty big stories dat preacher jury, and upon the oath you have taken. Because they did aid in carrying out the divine injunction, "be courteous,"

"be kindly affectionate one to another"

Because you cannot conceive of any

"be kindly affectionate one to another"

Because you cannot conceive of any

"be kindly affectionate one to another"

Because you cannot conceive of any

"be kindly affectionate one to another"

Because they did aid in carrying out did tell."

"What stories were they?"

"What stories were they?"

"What stories were they?"

"Why, he tell the people no man can as cool as a cucumber, replied: "Well, less he cums hisself."

Squire, as to the matter of that, you've Because you cannot conceive of any serve two masters; now dis is the diss sto address. Squire, as to die matter of that, you've truly benevolent being who would not sa, and also young massa John. Den de liquor down here, that a body ca i tell in that city recently inflicted a severe use them.

An Englishman was bragging of the Domestie Miscelland

It is stated that there are now 1,800 which is a declaration that the measure wagon crossing the track, about five miles. The constitution may be injured by t; how do you like him?"

"For my part I hate him. and what is to support them well. but my reason for While in mid-volley, the door of the in contemplation is not in opposition to whead, and the engineer let the whistle over-nursing, and the mind unnerved by

Yale College has existed one hundred lar, or even a dime occasion; lly; but no. young man-who was restored to sight hasn't been called to visit a patient on he would not tolerate a sort of revolt in that I had heard the engineer use when If its taxable property were equally divi-

Rev. Mr. Ellinger, of Covington, Ky., has been fined $2,094 and costs, for bar-cause he has quarelled with him, was a breach of kindness on one side will not Pears are rejling in Danville, Illinois, at 10 cents per tiushel.

the mountains from Susa and Bardoneche The London Diogenes says the tele to Modana, in Savoy I wa time ten miles graph is not yet over the whole world,

"Pa, ain't I growing tall?" "Why, what's your height, sonny?" "Seven feet-lacking a yard." Pa fainted.

England and Russia have not fought with each other for 300 years. The strongest passions allow us some rest, but vanity keeps us perpetually in motion. What a dust do I raisel says the fly upon a coach-wheel. And at what a rate do I drivel says the fly upon a horse's gument is to be suggested, rather than This is an und staking which throws stated. Usually one point is enough for our Hoosac taskel has ness a treely into of all insects? Because they first sing

The American Methodists have built churches at the rate of three per week, forences are always skipped. The sen tam as Simplen road over these mount and printed books at the rate of one a "Ah, Mr. Simpkins, we have not chairs certain effect. All that is not necessary the two countries by the interests of social 'y of chairs, ducky, but a little too much

An impudent fellow says: "Show me all the dresses a woman has worn in the course of her life, and I will write her biography from them." A boy in Jamaica was driving a mule; the animal was sullen, stopped, and turnional man more effectively make his words fore the temperature cause had made ed his arch next upon the boy as in democratical with life and power, then by week thrush progress; there was a tela in trision and contempt; "Won't go, will feared o' 'tother chap."

A grave-digger, who burried a man by the name of Button, sent the following bill to the widow: "To making a Buttonhole, $1," A county treasurer in Ohio, who is a defaulter in the sum of $7000, very innopreacher says ye lave de one and hate de how much they d-o o drink !'- He took cowhiding on her husband because he did